For Immediate Release
March 29, 2011

CANONSBURG, PA—Officials from the Mylan Classic announced today that ANSYS Inc. (Nasdaq: ANSS), will again be the sponsor of the tournament's TICKETS Fore CHARITY™ program. In 2010, the tournament generated more than $277,000 -- a first-year Nationwide Tour record -- for participating non-profit organizations through ANSYS TICKETS Fore CHARITY. With additional donations, the tournament contributed nearly $320,000 to regional charities.

Mylan Chairman and CEO Robert J. Coury said: "The Mylan Classic brought a lot of excitement, energy and international attention to Southpointe Golf Club, Washington County and the Pittsburgh region last summer, and all of us at Mylan are extremely proud to sponsor the event again this year. Through efforts such as the ANSYS TICKETS Fore CHARITY program, the Mylan Classic is much more than a sporting event. It also raises generous contributions for local charities and the community as a whole. We are grateful to the many volunteers and spectators for last year's support, and we are thrilled to have ANSYS back on board for another great year."

The 2011 ANSYS TICKETS Fore CHARITY program kicked-off last month at Southpointe Golf Club with more than 100 local non-profit representatives in attendance. Charity leadership from across the region met with Mylan Classic officials to learn about the program and any updates for the upcoming tournament.

"The ANSYS TICKETS Fore CHARITY program has provided a unique fundraising opportunity for the well-deserving non-profit organizations of western Pennsylvania. With the continued support and generosity of ANSYS, we are proud to offer this program again in 2011," said Chase McClain, Mylan Classic tournament director. "ANSYS' corporate citizenship and support of the PGA TOUR's charitable mission of giving back has enabled us to positively impact our community and residents."

TICKETS Fore CHARITY is a PGA TOUR co-sponsored program developed by Jeff Sanders Promotions, a Portland-based sports marketing company, and organizers of the Nationwide Tour's Albertsons Boise Open Presented by Kraft. Designed to create funding opportunities for 501(c)(3) non-profit organizations, TICKETS Fore CHARITY allows participating non-profit organizations to sell Mylan Classic tournament tickets and retain 100% of the proceeds. Additionally, ANSYS has contributed $35,000 to a bonus pool that will be distributed among the participating charities based on their percentage of sales to the overall program.

"We were so impressed with the local support and the overall positive impact that the ANSYS TICKETS Fore CHARITY program produced for the participating charitable organizations in 2010," said Jim Cashman, ANSYS president and CEO. "In an effort to continue to build on the momentum of last year's success, and to help make this year's tournament a record-breaking event, ANSYS is pleased to announce our continued sponsorship in 2011. We are truly honored to continue to play a role in helping to make the Mylan Classic benefit our local community and the non-profit organizations that deliver much-needed support for those across Washington County and western Pennsylvania."

As one of the region's premier events, the Mylan Classic offers both championship golf and entertainment for the whole family. Weekly tournament tickets for the Mylan Classic are priced at $25, and are valid for the tournament itself as well as concerts, clinics and special events during tournament week. In 2010, the tournament hosted concerts by Grammy-nominated Country music artist Joe Nichols, Eli Young Band, The Commodores and Tino Coury. The tournament's concert series for 2011 will be announced in the coming months. To purchase tickets online and support your favorite charity, please visit www.MylanClassic.com.

The Mylan Classic is the only event in Pennsylvania on the PGA TOUR's 26-event Nationwide Tour in 2011. It will be held Aug. 29 to Sept. 4 at Southpointe Golf Club in Canonsburg, Pa. The event will draw 156 Nationwide Tour professionals from as many as 20 countries vying for one of the 25 PGA TOUR cards that will be awarded to the leading money winners at the end of the year. Also descending on Washington County during tournament week will be the players' families, caddies, Pro-Am participants, corporate guests, television crews, Tour staff members and thousands of spectators. The Golf Channel will televise all four rounds of the Mylan Classic in the U.S. Internationally, it will be distributed via the PGA TOUR to 176 countries and territories on every continent but Antarctica, including Japan, China, North Korea and South Korea.

Charitable contributions have been a significant part of the PGA TOUR since 1938. Including the Nationwide Tour and Champions Tour, PGA TOUR events annually benefit more than 2,000 charities and countless individuals worldwide. To date, the PGA TOUR has raised more than $1.6 billion for charities.
