For Immediate Release
July 14, 2010

CANONSBURG, PA – The Mylan Classic presented by CONSOL Energy announced today that PGA TOUR golfer Rocco Mediate will take part in the inaugural tournament's week of entertainment. Mediate is slated to host an entertaining clinic during tournament week as well as participating in the Pro-Am.

The clinic was created to present tournament sponsors and special guests with the unique opportunity to interact with Mediate while also receiving expert instruction for players of any skill level. Mediate joins a host of celebrities participating in the Mylan Classic's festivities which begin August 30 with the Taggart Global Celebrity Pro-Am.

"The Mylan Classic is once again proud to be associated with people who are stars in their profession. Having Rocco perform a golf clinic during tournament week will be exciting for the fans to see and will be great entertainment. Rocco is coming off a strong finish on this past week's PGA TOUR event and will add great depth to the lineup of players in the field," said Rodney L. Piatt, president of the Southpointe Golf Club.

Greensburg native Rocco Mediate has five wins on the PGA TOUR over the course of his career and ranks No. 48 on the all time money list. Rocco finished second during the 2008 U.S. Open at Torrey Pines when he and Tiger Woods played in only the third sudden death round in U.S. Open history. The second place finish catapulted Rocco from 158 to 47 in the world golf rankings.

"I am thrilled that the PGA TOUR's Nationwide Tour is coming back to western Pennsylvania," said Mediate. "I love playing back home. I'm sure the Mylan Classic will be a great success. I look forward to the clinic, and hope to see a lot of fans come out to Southpointe Golf Club for a real treat. These "young guys" on the Nationwide Tour are really good. Should be fun!"

In addition to Mediate's clinic, a free youth clinic will also be held Tuesday, August 31 at 12 p.m. compliments of Goldman Sachs. Children 12 years of age and younger will have the opportunity practice their swings as the Nationwide Tour professionals provide demonstrations, sign autographs and give individual lessons for the youth attendees. The event is open to all youth and their parents or chaperones. All kids and attending adults will receive free admission to events throughout the day, which includes a practice round for the Nationwide Tour professionals. The professionals begin play in the Mylan Classic Thursday, September 2. Equipment will be provided for the youth clinic, and participants are encouraged to arrive at Southpointe Golf Club at 11:30 a.m.

As a community event, the Mylan Classic offers both championship golf and entertainment for the whole family. Weekly tournament tickets for the Mylan Classic are priced at $25, and are valid for the tournament itself as well as a concert by Grammy-nominated country music artist Joe Nichols and special guest Eli Young Band August 31 at The Meadows, in Washington County.
